

Blaisdell, Russell Lloyd, Chaplain (Col), U.S. Air Force, b. September 4, 1910 in Hayfield, MN – d. May 1, 2007 in Las Vegas, NV, burial at Veterans Cemetery, Boulder City, NV; B.A., Macalester College, M.Div., McCormick Theological Seminary; Presbyterian Minister; Representative, New York State Dept. of Social Services; is known as the “Schindler of the Korean War” for saving the lives of over 1,000 orphans at the risk of his life and career. Book, Father of a Thousand, published in Korean language in 2007.